

CENSUS ART CONTEST EVERYONE COUNTS!

What does it mean for everyone in your community to count?

Student Art Contest

- Submit by Monday, July 15th
- Three $250 prizes

Guidelines

1. This free contest is open to all students in grades K-12 in Massachusetts. One prize will be awarded in each of these categories: to elementary school artist (grades K-5); middle school artist (grades 6-8); and high school artist (grades 9-12).
2. Submit one entry per participant. Each submission should be 8.5" x 11"
3. All submissions must be emailed or postmarked by Monday, July 15, 2019.
Email: census@lawyersforcivilrights.org
Postal: Census Art Contest
Lawyers For Civil Rights
61 Batterymarch Street, 5th floor
Boston, MA 02110
4. All qualifying art will be displayed at a community event at the East Boston Public Library on Saturday, July 20, 2019 at 12:00 noon.

CENSUS ART CONTEST EVERYONE COUNTS!

2020 Census

Student Art Contest

Theme: Everyone Counts!

What does it mean for everyone in your community to count? Centro Presente and Lawyers for Civil Rights are hosting a student art contest to highlight the importance of community for the upcoming 2020 Census.

Participate for a chance to win $250 and show us what “everyone counts” means to you! Students, this is an opportunity for you to tell the story of your neighborhood and your community! All Massachusetts students in grades K-12 are invited to participate by sending one submission. The artwork must be flat (two-dimensional) and 8.5" x 11". It must be emailed or postmarked by Monday, July 15.

Three winners will be publicly announced at a community event that will be held at the East Boston Public Library (365 S. Bremen Street in East Boston) on Saturday, July 20, 2019 at 12:00 PM. All participants and their families are invited to join us for this community event which will exhibit all qualifying submissions, including the prize winners!

The submission must include a note containing the participant’s name, age, school of attendance, grade, address, email, and phone number. Email submissions must be less than 5MB.

All Artwork Must Be Original: We want to see your creativity at work! The participant must be the creator of the work they submit. If the image infringes another's copy-right, it will be disqualified. Upon submission, participant is solely responsible for any infringement on copyrighted materials.

Non-Exclusive Permissions: By entering this contest, participant is granting Centro Presente and Lawyers for Civil Rights a non-exclusive perpetual license to reproduce images of the artwork on Centro Presente and Lawyers for Civil Rights promotional materials, and in the marketing of our 2020 Census community outreach and engagement work. We reserve the right to reproduce images of entered artwork at our discretion.

We reserve the right to reject entries that are not suitable for all audiences.

All judgments are final and interpretations of the guidelines are at Centro Presente’s and Lawyers for Civil Rights’ sole discretion.

