Honoring Beth Chandler

Rosa Parks Keeper of the Flame Award

LCR is proud to honor Beth Chandler, Director of Community Investments for Point32Health Foundation, with the prestigious Keeper of the Flame Award, which commemorates the legacy of civil rights icon Rosa Parks. Beth is an experienced nonprofit and business leader, a longtime LCR ally, and a committed advocate for equality and justice.

Over the last two decades, Beth's visionary leadership and distinguished service have supported countless efforts to protect civil rights and address inequality in its many forms. Today, she leads grantmaking strategies and work with communities for Point32Health Foundation. Prior to that, she served as president and CEO of YW Boston where she cultivated key stakeholder relationships and implemented new programs to advance the mission to eliminate racism and empower women.

Beth has also served at the Achievement Network, Massachusetts Legal Assistance Corporation, NeighborWorks America, The Urban Institute, Bank of America and as a professional basketball player. She currently sits on the Governor's Council on Black Empowerment, Eastern Bank Board of Advisors, Museum of Fine Arts Board of Advisors, Third Sector New England Board of Directors and the AARP Foundation Board of Directors.

Beth was honored with the Massachusetts Nonprofit Network Lifetime Award and the Girl Scouts of Eastern MA Leading Woman Award in 2023. She was named a Power 50 Movement Maker by the Boston Business Journal in 2021.

Beth holds a master's in business administration from Columbia Business School and a bachelor of arts in economics from Harvard-Radcliffe College.
